The Magellan eXplorer 310 is the simplest hunting GPS on our list and is perhaps emblematic in demonstrating how far the competition has to go to catch up to the best Garmin units. That said if you're just looking for a hunting GPS device that you can whip out if you find yourself in unfamiliar territory the eXplorer is a reasonable choice ...

Magellan GPS Receivers =====
Magellan GPS units output a proprietary NMEA that offers tracking only. They do not offer speed or elevation readings because of the limited information available from the device itself. This is not a problem with the software; it is a result of the limited NMEA messages emanating from the receiver.
